QUOTE OF THE DAY

“Of what use were the arts if they were only the reproduction and the imitation of life?” – Alfred de Vigny

“I sing the songs that people need to hear.” – Etta Jame

“There's too much darkness in the world. Everywhere you turn, someone is tryin' to tear someone down in some way; everywhere you go, there's a feeling of inadequacy, or a feeling that you're not good enough. I want to bring a certain light to the world.” – Alicia Keys

“I attribute my success to this - I never gave or took any excuse.” – Florence Nightingale

“Life is not a series of gig-lamps symmetrically arranged; life is a luminous halo, a semi-transparent envelope surrounding us from the beginning of consciousness to the end. Is it not the task of the novelist to convey this varying, this unknown and uncircumscribed spirit, whatever aberration or complexity it may display, with as little mixture of the alien and external as possible? We are not pleading merely for courage and sincerity; we are suggesting that the proper stuff of fiction is a little other than custom would have us believe it.” – Virginia Woolf

“The ability to quote is a serviceable substitute for wit.” – W. Somerset Maugham
